

Goals 2009-10

Goal One: Our expectations about Literacy will include all subgroups.

- Homer Schools will be vigilant in maintaining a standard which will allow the district to stay off all non-performing or under-performing lists
- Graduation is the ultimate benchmark of the district's success

Our Goal	We Achieved
2010-90%	2008-91%
2012-95%
2014-100%

Goal Two: The district will embrace recognition of the district, the staff and our students. Recognition that we will actually seek will be:

- Continuing the SACI process.
- The district will meet the Comptroller's expectation in Audits
- Staff Recognition: Examples to include: Teacher of the Year, Presidential award for teaching, Bus Drivers' rodeo performance
- We will make information available to the public so they might nominate staff members.
- Our staff will seek out opportunities to showcase our students' talents
- During 2009-10 we will collect all good accolades for the school, staff or students and place them on the district website

Goal Three: Increase parental and community involvement in our schools. Create a more welcoming district.

- Continue to collect parent-teacher conferences data
- Maintain data on reluctant parent contacts through support services
- Continue to research and try new activities to involve parents

Goal Four: Continue the review of curriculum by peers.

- Fall 2009 math review-district wide (SACI)
- Determine what will be reviewed in 2010-11
- Determine if Middle States Accreditation is a desirable goal during 2009-10

Goal Five: Team approach to Education.

- Provide time for vertical articulation of curriculum
- Build a strong team among all district stakeholders
- Provide opportunities to develop staff leadership skills and continuing staff development

Goal Six: Finances of the District

- Review and update the assumption of the five year plan and update in the fall

Goal Seven: Promote School Green Activities

- Look at district wide progress to promote alternative energy use, recycling, reducing and reusing of resources

Goal Eight: Negotiations for 2009-10

- Attain goals from 2008-09 and settle all outstanding contracts
- Work with all staff to discuss mutually beneficial ways to help contain costs

Goal Nine: Hartnett Feasibility Study
