

Biographical Outline for Nominee to the Homer CSD Board of Education

Dr. Kevin P. Mack

Skills, experiences, talents you bring to the Homer CSD BOE:

Created and continues to coordinate The Next Generation Leadership Summit Program for high school students in the Cortland and Geneseo area. Last year, I received the SUNY Cortland Civic Leadership Award for this program.

Business and/or Professional Background:

Worked with approximately fifteen schools, including Homer Central Schools, as an Educational Consultant.

Served as the Chairperson/Coordinator of the Educational Leadership Department at SUNY Cortland. I founded and coordinated The Francis J. Cheney Educational Leadership Program for School Administrators.

Over 20 years experience in leadership roles for public schools. I have served as superintendent of schools, district curriculum coordinator, and high school principal. As superintendent, I developed a successful Business/Education/Community Partnership.

Taught and coached in the Homer School District. I was honored to be the Homer Graduation Speaker in 1982.

Earned my Doctorate in Educational Administration from Vanderbilt University.

Hobbies and/or Avocations:

Being retired gives me ample time to read, downhill ski, and spend time with my grandchildren.

Anything else you wish to share about yourself:

Longtime resident of Cortland County. My wife, Connie Mack, and I raised two children, Sean and Caitlin, who graduated from Homer High School. Next year, two of our four grandchildren will be attending Homer Schools.
